NEW DELHI, MONDAY, APRIL 23, 1956

MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING

NOTIFICATION

New Delhi, the 23rd April 1956

S.R.O. 948.—The following draft of certain rules which the Central Government proposes to make in exercise of the powers conferred by Section 20A of the Press and Registration of Books Act, 1867 (25 of 1867) is hereby published for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby; and notice is hereby given that the draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 23rd May, 1956.

The Central Government shall consider any objection or suggestion which may be received by it from any person with respect to the draft before the date so specified.

DRAFT RULES

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Registration of Newspapers (Central) Rules, 1956.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) 'Act' means the Press and Registration of Books Act, 1867;
- (b) 'Certificate' means a certificate of registration issued by the Press Registrar under section 19C of the Act;
- (c) 'Form' means a Form prescribed in the Schedule to these rules;
- (d) 'Press Registrar' means the Registrar of Newspapers for India appointed under section 19A of the Act;
- (e) 'Publisher' means the publisher of a newspaper;
- (f) 'Register' means the Register of newspapers maintained by the Press Registrar under section 19B of the Act;
- (g) 'Bi-weekly' means a publication published twice in a week;
- (h) 'Tri-weekly' means a publication published thrice in a week.

3. Form of Declaration.—Every declaration made under Section 5 of the Act shall be in Form I, and the person making the declaration shall give full and true particulars therein.

4. Transmission of copies of declaration to the Press Registrar.—A copy of declaration made before a Magistrate duly attested by his official seal shall be forwarded to the Press Registrar by registered post.

5. Delivery of copies of newspapers to the Press Registrar.—Every publisher shall, within 24 hours of the publication of an issue of his newspaper, send to the Press Registrar one copy of the issue, by post or by a messenger.

Provided that where any newspaper publishes more than one edition under the same declaration and the retail selling price charged for, and the number of pages contained in, an issue of any such edition is different from an issue of any other edition, then, one copy of the issue of each such edition shall be sent to the Press Registrar.

6. (1) Every publisher shall, in respect of his newspaper or each of his newspapers, furnish to the Press Registrar the following statements containing the particulars hereinafter specified:—

- (a) Statement of number of days of publication, number of pages, etc.— A statement in Form II containing the particulars of a newspaper relating to the number of days of its publication, the number of its pages and other particulars specified therein, in respect of every week ending with Sunday, shall be forwarded to the Press Registrar, weekly in the case of daily newspapers, once in four weeks in the case of weekly, tri-weekly and bi-weekly newspapers and once in thirteen weeks in other cases.
- (b) Statement of number of copies printed, sold, distributed and the retail selling price.— A statement in Form III containing the particulars of a newspaper relating to the number of copies thereof printed, sold and distributed free and its retail selling price and other particulars specified therein, in respect of every six months ending on the 30th June and 31st December of each year, shall be forwarded to the Press Registrar so as to reach him on or before the 31st July and the 31st January respectively.

NOTE.—The first statement to be submitted on or before the 31st July, 1956 need relate only to the period from

- (c) Annual Statement.—An annual statement in Form IV relating to a newspaper containing the particulars specified therein in respect of each calendar year, shall be forwarded to the Press Registrar so as to reach him on or before the 1st February of the following year.

NOTE.—The statement to be submitted on or before the 1st February, 1957 need relate only to the period from

(2) Whenever there is a change in the retail selling price of a newspaper furnished in any statement referred to in clause (b) of sub-rule (1), it shall be the duty of the publisher to intimate the change to the Press Registrar within 24 hours of the change.

7. Maintenance of the Register.—(1) The Press Registrar shall maintain a Register of Newspapers in Form V.

(2) The pages of the Register shall be machine numbered consecutively and one page shall be allotted for one newspaper. Initial entries in the Register and subsequent changes, if any, shall be duly authenticated under the signature and seal of the Press Registrar or of an Officer authorised by him.

(3) The Press Registrar shall, after verification of the figures furnished in the statement of the number of pages, enter in the register the average number of pages over a period of four weeks in respect of daily, tri-weekly, bi-weekly and weekly newspapers and over a period of thirteen weeks in respect of other newspapers.

(4) In respect of every newspaper, the Press Registrar shall also enter in the Register,—

- (a) the total number of days of the publication of the newspaper from the 1st January to the 31st December of each year;
- (b) the average number of copies of the newspaper printed, copies sold to the public and copies distributed free to the public, for the two half years ending the 30th June and the 31st December of each year;
- (c) the retail selling price per copy of the newspaper and any change in its retail selling price;
- (d) the names and addresses of the owners of the newspaper.

NOTE.—The names of partners or shareholders holding more than one per cent of the total capital need alone be entered.

8. Particulars to be published in every newspaper.—The publisher shall publish in every issue of his newspaper the retail selling price of each copy. The publisher shall also publish in the first issue after the 31st January, of each year the particulars specified in Form VI.

9. The Press Registrar shall, on an application made to him in writing and on payment of a fee of rupee one in respect of each newspaper, furnish to the applicant extracts from the Register duly certified by him.

10. Certificate of registration.—(1) In every case where on or after a publisher makes a declaration before a Magistrate, the Press Registrar, shall, as soon as practicable, after receipt of the copy of the declaration, issue to the publisher a certificate of registration in Form VII.

(2) Every publisher who has made a declaration before shall, on or before apply to the Press Registrar for a certificate of registration. Every such application shall be accompanied by statements giving true and correct details of the declarations already made and the other particulars specified in Form I.

11. Annual Report.—The Press Registrar shall submit to the Central Government, on or before the 31st March, of each year, an annual report containing information about the Press in India, and in particular, statistics, circulation trends in different categories of newspapers and the trends in the direction of common ownership of more than one newspaper:

Provided that the annual report to be submitted on or before the 31st March 1957, may relate only to the period from to the 31st December, 1956.

12. Repeal.—Any rule made by a State Government under the Act in respect of newspapers which is inconsistent with these rules shall stand repealed.

Form of Declaration.
